Resolutions

Whereas, The Putnam County Sunday School convention in its semi-annual session has had the pleasure of meeting at Post Oak Shade on this Saturday, May 17, 1911, and

Whereas, This people have gone to the expense and trouble of making special arrangements and providing an abundant dinner for the splendid audience in attendance,

Be it resolved, That the thanks of the convention be and the same are hereby extended to this community for the hospitable manner in which we have been entertained;

That we thank Dr. Provine for his presence on this occasion and the splendid addresses he has made;

That the thanks of the convention be extended to the Putnam County Herald for the programs printed without expense to the convention.

MRS. M. L. CLINTON,
MISS LEONA BYRNE.

Farmers should keep a bank account because their bank deposit book affords them a complete record of their cash receipts, while the stubs of their check books are a perfect record of expenses and payments. Paying any debt with a check is a much safer than with the money. — First National Bank.

Presbyterian Church Services

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, June 4th, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The public cordially invited to these services.

Free Lecture

Miss Hamilton of Chautauqua, N. Y., will lecture in Cookeville next Tuesday night at the College auditorium. Miss Hamilton will be remembered by many of our citizens, as she was here last October. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Pierian Club and will be free. The lecture will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and it is desired that the audience be seated at that time. It is not polite to enter late and disturb the speaker and audience.

Chas. N. Wheeler

Charles Newton Wheeler died in Nashville Monday morning, May 29, 1911, aged about 71 years. Mr. Wheeler was a resident of Cookeville for many years and was prominent in Masonic circles over the state.

Mrs. Frank Richmond and Mrs. W. R. Carlen attended the funeral which was held in Nashville.

Mr. Wheeler was one of the best men who ever lived, and his death will be sincerely mourned by a large number of friends.
